

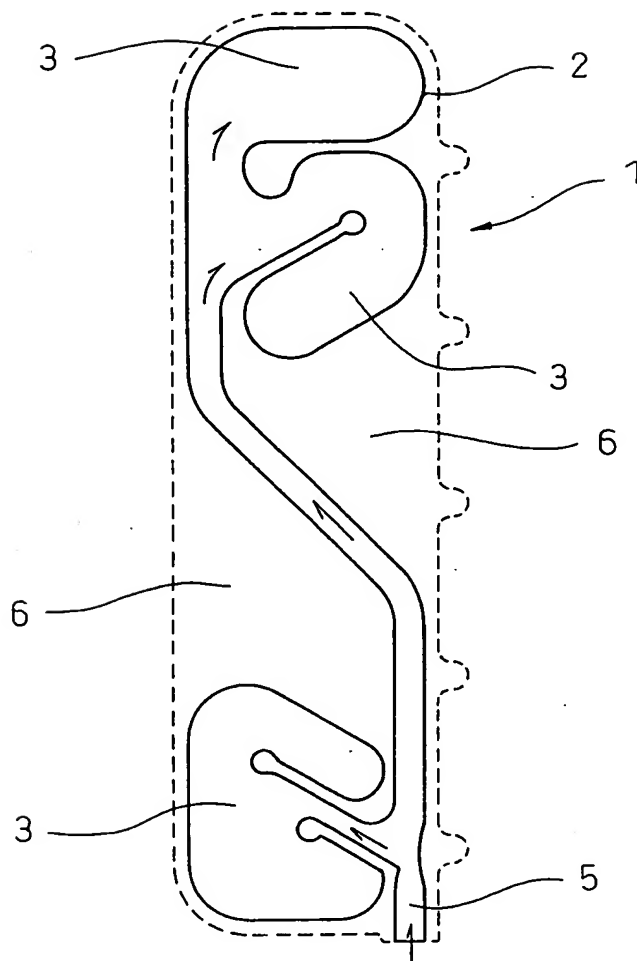

Fig.1

The diagram shows a 10x10 grid of squares. A vertical dashed line, labeled 'A' at the top, divides the grid into two parts. The left part, consisting of the first five columns, has a checkerboard pattern where black and white squares alternate in a regular grid. The right part, consisting of the last five columns, is entirely black.

Fig. 3

4/6

Fig.4

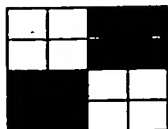

Fig.5

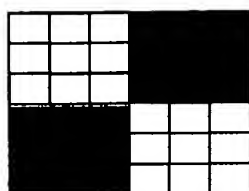

Fig.6

5 / 6

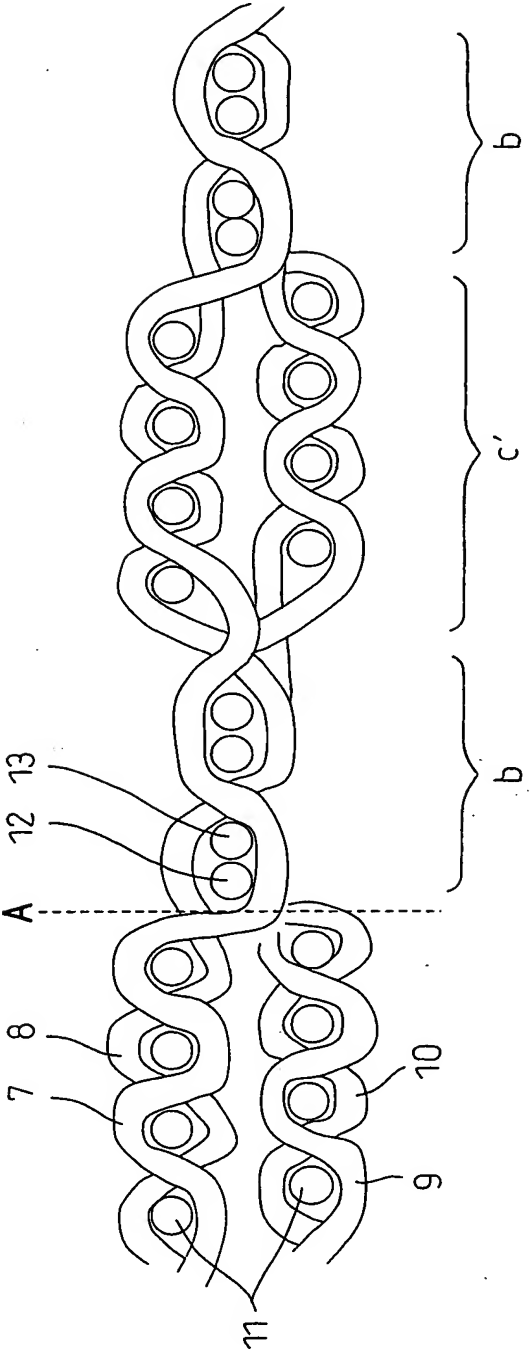

Fig.7

6/6

Fig. 8

